In addition, it is the conse the tour was most stimulating; (b) 2-1/2 hours than could have been 't semester conditions; and (C) the to of my course entitled, Graphics and	our should be an integral part

Director George Bush Central Intelligence Agency Washington, D.C. 20005

Dear Director Bush:

As producer of the David Brudnoy show and a nephew of Dr. & Mrs. Walter S. Parks, Jr. of Middleland, Texas, I would like to extend to you an invitation to appear on the David Brudnoy show which can be heard over WHDH Radio (850am, 50,000 watts) here in Boston.

Recently, my aunt, Mrs. Walter S. Parks, Jr., was visiting my family in Massachusetts and mentioned that she and my uncle know the Bush family of Middleland, Texas. My aunt, although reluctant because she does not like to take advantage of personal relationships, said I could use her name in trying to reach you to be a guest on the David Brudnoy show.

David Brudnoy, who you may or may not know, is a writer for Nation Review Magazine and is a close personal friend of William F. Buckley, Jr. He is a libertarian conservative who believes in the operation of the Central Intelligence Agency as an important element in the defense of the United States. In other words, you would be dealing with a friendly interviewer who supports the CIA.

Personally, I had the pleasure of meeting you when you were Chairman of the National Republican Committee and spoke at our Annual Lincoln Day Dinner in Newton, Massachusetts. I understand from my aunt that since you have become Director of the CIA that you cannot answer any political questions. Mr. Brudnoy will confine his questions to the role and operation of the CIA and will remain as a-political as possible.

The David Brudnoy show is broadcast live, Monday-Friday, 10pm to Midnight EST. Since your schedule and committments must be extremely burdensome in your role as director, I would like to make a conference call hookup. With a conference line, I can call you anywhere on the North American Continent when your schedule permits during our two hour segment on the air. The interview will be brief. All I'm asking is ten minutes of your time and I would not expect you to take any local phone calls.

I will call your Washington office in a couple of days to see when this can be arranged.

Best regards,

Robert W Tennant/Producer

THE DAVID BRUDNOY SHOW
